There will be one presentation made at this meeting:

Nuclear Waste Management Organization - Geoscience and Environmental Update

Members of the NWMO's Geoscience and Environmental teams will be presenting an update to the community on the work taking place in South Bruce.

As the Project Manager for the South Bruce borehole drilling project, Martin Sykes will be providing an update on the work completed thus far at the two borehole sites located within the potential repository site in South Bruce. He will be supported by Geophysicist, Mostafa Khorshidi for any detailed questions related to 3D seismic field work.

Joanne Jacyk, Section Manager for Environmental Assessment, will be providing an update on the environmental baseline program, the partnership with the Saugeen Valley Conservation Authority and upcoming opportunities for local involvement in the environmental DNA program and biodiversity mapping. Senior Environmental Scientist, Melissa Mayhew will be present to answer any technical questions on the program.
